

Anser Advisory Announces H.R. Gray Acquisition, Expanding Market Expertise & Geographic Coverage

May 5, 2020

ORLANDO, Fla.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Anser Advisory (Anser), ranked 25 in ENR's 2019 Top 50 Program Management Firms and 47 in ENR's 2019 Top 100 Construction Management-for-Fee Firms, has announced the acquisition of H.R. Gray, a 76 employee owner's representative, construction management and dispute resolution firm based in the Midwestern United States.

H.R. Gray was originally founded in 1979 to serve the then increasing demand for responsive, cost-effective construction management services for a range of projects and construction disputes. For the last 8 years, H.R. Gray has operated as a wholly owned subsidiary of The Haskell Company (Haskell), a global provider of integrated design, engineering, construction, and professional services.

According to Bryan Carruthers, CEO of Anser, "Our firms share aligned values and a shared dedication to our employees, our clients, and providing industry leading project, program and construction management services. H.R. Gray's legacy in Ohio and Pennsylvania, as well as their deep expertise in managing water and wastewater projects are strategic additions to the existing areas of expertise at Anser."

"We are thrilled to join the Anser family," said Tom Merritt, President of H.R. Gray. "I cannot imagine a better opportunity for us to continue to build on our capabilities and passion for delivering high quality solutions for our clients while creating exciting opportunities for our staff to grow their careers."

Tony Brindisi, Co-Founder and Managing Partner at RTC Partners, said, "We are very pleased to welcome the entire H.R. Gray team to the Anser family. In these challenging times, we feel fortunate for this opportunity to add strength and diversity to the Anser organization. We believe this transaction will broaden opportunities for employees, enhance the service offering to our customers and create value for all stakeholders."
