

Increasing Quality: Ei Risk Management Corporation, a member of Ei Companies, Acquires ABCO Engineering Corporation of Colorado

February 19, 2020

LAS VEGAS, Feb. 19, 2020 /PRNewswire/ -- Ei Risk Management Corporation (EiRM), a third party construction and quality assurance firm, and a member of Ei Companies headquartered in Las Vegas, NV, today announced the acquisition of ABCO Engineering Corporation (ABCO) of Denver, Colorado, one of the leading construction quality assurance companies in the United States.

"The addition of ABCO significantly enhances EiRM's strategic profile by further positioning the combined businesses as a highly differentiated and integrated provider of a broad range of construction Quality Assurance services to the Construction and Insurance industries. This acquisition will lead to increased margins and decreased lead times for our clients, while increasing the amount and quality of services offered in multiple market segments, further positioning Ei Companies as a 'one-stop-shop' for its customers," said Galo LeBron, CEO of Ei Corporation.

"We are thrilled to partner with EiRM and Ei Companies, as we embark upon a new phase of growth for ABCO. We're excited about what this means for our clients and our employees. This acquisition should serve as a springboard for our team and help to improve quality in construction throughout the nation," said Joe Johnson of ABCO, who will continue with the merged companies as Executive Vice President, remaining in Colorado.

"We look forward to an extremely fruitful and collaborative partnership with Joe, and the entire ABCO team. They have done a phenomenal job in building a culture that has helped mold the construction quality assurance industry, delivering observations that showcase the quality, durability, and sustainability of multifamily units, single family homes, and commercial construction," said Thomas Cochran, President of EiRM.
