

Envista Forensics buys Texas-based Stephenson Consulting Group

December 1, 2020

Envista Forensics, a global forensic engineering and consulting firm, has acquired Stephenson Consulting Group LLC, a property and building assessment consultancy based in Arlington, Texas.

Founded in 2005, Stephenson Consulting Group works with commercial insurers, property owners, and legal professionals to assess property losses and determine the scope of work required to bring structures back to pre-loss condition.

The Stephenson team works with clients throughout Texas and the surrounding states. The company's team of 12 professionals is led by founder Larry Stephenson and managing partner Michael Vandever, who together have a combined 55+ years of experience in the insurance and contracting industry.

Envista's acquisition of Stephenson will bolster its existing building consulting division. Larry Stephenson and Michael Vandever will join the major loss practice as senior principal consultants.

Envista Forensics buys Texas-based Stephenson Consulting Group Envista's major loss team is composed of hundreds of experts and engineers who help clients across industries determine causation and costing following a disaster.

"Envista's Building Consulting division plays an integral role in our growth strategy, and the Stephenson team will undoubtedly enhance our ability to deliver industry-leading solutions for clients around the world," said Don Skaff, EVP of Envista Forensics. "We are delighted to be welcoming this wonderful group to the Envista family."

Headquartered in Atlanta, Envista has been supporting insurance companies and legal professionals for more than 30 years. Its core forensic engineering offering analyzes disasters, accidents, and product failures – answering questions around cause, responsibility, and how to prevent re-occurrence. The firm's other services include cyber incident response, fraud investigation, equipment loss consulting, and expert witness and litigation support.

The company has nearly 600 employees across more than 40 offices in North America, Europe, and Asia-Pacific.
