

INTEGRAL GROUP AND ROSS & BARUZZINI ANNOUNCE MERGER

January 5, 2022

Integral Group, LLC, and Ross & Baruzzini, Inc. announced an intent to merge. Expected to be finalized in late-2022, the new company will consist of more than 1,000 employees located in 31 offices in the United States, Canada, the United Kingdom, Serbia, and Australia, creating one of the largest building engineering and consulting firms.

Ross & Baruzzini has demonstrated expertise across the transportation and buildings sectors through a well-diversified market approach, underpinned by delivering cutting-edge technology solutions. Integral Group has built a global business delivering deep green engineering solutions on some of the world's most complex projects with an emphasis on decarbonization and resilience.

The future is at the intersection of technology and sustainability within the built environment — where buildings and infrastructure become living systems that address the complex challenges facing society and connecting communities.

The name of the new company and the timing for the merger will be announced in the months ahead.
