

Marleon Capital has announced the acquisition of CLS Planning and Construction Services

May 21, 2021

Marleon Capital has announced the acquisition of CLS Planning and Construction Services, a premier construction management and owner's representative firm specializing in construction and capital improvement projects. With a long history of managing design, construction, and acting as owners representative, CLS's staff have deep industry experience providing services to private and public sector clients. CLS will align with The Reficio Company, part of the Marleon Capital family of brands.

Clark Stephens, CLS's founder will continue to support the transition managing projects and mentoring staff. By joining Marleon Capital and Reficio, CLS, will dramatically expand their team and capabilities, and are joining a collaborative group of like-minded professionals seeking to provide the highest quality services to their client base while expanding their footprint.

Joseph Cuticeli, of Marleon Capital, stated of the acquisition, "We are very pleased that CLS has joined the Marleon Capital family. Their addition to our team supports our strategic goal of increasing Reficio's professional depth with individuals that possess aligned values and share our vision of growing as one of the leading claims consulting and construction advisory firms in the country.
