

Rimkus Consulting Group, Inc. Acquires Pittsburgh-based Construction Consulting Firm

January 27, 2020

HOUSTON, TX – January 27, 2020 – Rimkus Consulting Group, Inc. (Rimkus), a worldwide provider of forensic engineering and consulting services, today announced the strategic acquisition of Pittsburgh-based Brashear Construction Consulting, Inc. (BCC). The deal follows Rimkus' capital announcement in 2019 to support long-term growth strategies and remain a leader in forensic engineering and consulting. Combined, the two companies will bring an unmatched level of service to its global customers in the construction industry.

"This acquisition is consistent with Rimkus' overall growth strategy and objective to expand our core service lines and build our first-rate team of globally renowned technical experts," said Robert P. Kocher, President and Chief Executive Officer of Rimkus Consulting Group, Inc. "Brashear Construction Consulting, Inc. has an excellent reputation for reliability, professional expertise and customer service in all phases of a construction project. We look forward to continued growth and investment in solutions that position Rimkus on the leading edge of our industry."

"We're honored to join the Rimkus team and to work alongside their team of experts," said Timothy R. Brashear, President of Brashear Construction Consulting, Inc. "Combined, this acquisition enhances our vision of becoming the premier provider of claims consulting services for construction project stakeholders."

Rimkus operates more than 60 offices across the United States, Canada and the United Kingdom with a consulting network of more than 500 experts. Century Equity Partners acted as the exclusive financial advisor to Rimkus on this acquisition.
