Trilon Group Announces New Transportation Partnerships with DRMP Inc. and ESI Consultants
Denver, CO – May 5, 2022 – Trilon Group (Trilon), a family of infrastructure consulting businesses backed by Alpine Investors, today announced new partnerships with DRMP Inc. (DRMP) and ESI Consultants (ESI) that continue to advance Trilon towards its vision of building the next Top 20 infrastructure services firm in North America.

With the addition of DRMP and ESI, Trilon launches its National Transportation platform and expands its presence into the Southeast and Midwest regions. The Trilon family of companies also includes Waggoner Engineering, a Mississippi-based engineering services firm which joined the group in February 2022. Trilon is backed by Alpine Investors, a people-driven private equity firm committed to building enduring businesses, and pursues partnerships with like-minded engineering firms focused on delivering practical and sustainable infrastructure solution.

Founded in 1977, DRMP is a multi-discipline civil engineering and surveying firm that develops innovative design solutions for infrastructure development in the public, private and industrial sectors. DRMP employs over 500 professionals in 19 offices across the Southeast region of the U.S. with headquarters in Orlando, Florida. With its deep expertise in transportation infrastructure, planning and design services, DRMP will help lead the growth strategy for Trilon's National Transportation platform. Larry Smith, Jr., PE will continue to lead DRMP as CEO / President.

Founded in 2003, ESI is an engineering and architectural consulting services firm that is committed to building enduring relationships with its business partners and clients by provided cost-effective and innovative solutions. ESI's staff is committed to providing Excellence, Service, and Integrity in everything they do. The company is headquartered in Naperville, Illinois with additional offices in Charleston and Chicago, Illinois and Hammond, Indiana. ESI will continue to be led by President and Founder, Joe Chiczewski, PE.

"We are thrilled for DRMP and ESI to join Waggoner as members of the Trilon family," said Trilon CEO Mick Renshaw. "Larry and Joe have built extraordinary companies and phenomenal leadership teams that share a passion for serving their communities, clients, and employees and that make DRMP and ESI fantastic strategic and cultural fits for Trilon. We are excited to support both companies by investing in talent, technology, and targeted M&A to help them accelerate their growth ambitions. By serving as a growth accelerator for quality firms, Trilon is able to help firms expand the services they provide to their clients and the career advancement opportunities they can offer their employees."
