

Arora Engineers Announces Strategic Partnership with Jacmel Growth Partners

August 10, 2022

Arora Engineers (Arora), as well as its subsidiary companies EDI and Arora Systems Group, announced today that it recently partnered with Jacmel Growth Partners (Jacmel), a minority-owned, private investment firm focused on working with family-owned businesses. Strategic capital from Jacmel will support Arora's leadership team as we continue executing on our long-term growth initiatives. Arora, one of the largest minority-owned infrastructure services firms in North America, will continue to be managed by current President and CEO Manik Arora, PE, and maintain its minority-owned business status.

Headquartered in Chadds Ford, Pennsylvania, Arora is a second-generation, minority-owned family business focused on working towards its mission to Improve the Quality of Life by Rethinking Infrastructure®. Arora's core infrastructure markets are experiencing exceptional growth, supported by the recently passed historic $1.2 trillion Infrastructure Investment and Jobs Act ("IIJA"), which will be critical to advancing a healthy economy and improving the quality of life for all citizens. Arora is well-positioned at the center of this market with its 15 locations worldwide and consistently ranks as an ENR Top 500 Design Firm, as well as one of BD+C's top ten airport facility engineering firms in the U.S.

"We're excited to support the growth of Arora and have a deep conviction in Manik and his team's long-term vision of rethinking the future of infrastructure. The firm is actively changing the type of impact and service clients have come to expect from a multi-disciplined engineering firm, and they're seen as a leader across the aviation, transportation, education, government, and commercial sectors," said Nick Jean-Baptiste, Founder and Managing Partner at Jacmel Growth Partners. "At Jacmel, we believe in partnering with companies with ambitious founders who have a strong desire to grow and give back to communities, and Arora's history reflects that. Arora's story is inspirational, and our team is looking forward to contributing to their future success."
