

CH Engineering has joined Pennoni

November 9, 2022

Pennoni is excited to announce CH Engineering, a civil #engineering and land #surveying firm in Raleigh, NC, has joined Pennoni as the new CH Engineering division of Pennoni!

“We are delighted to welcome CH Engineering. This new addition allows Pennoni to #expand our service offerings, boost staff and broaden our client base in the Carolinas region. Their reputation for hard work and dedication to clients will serve as a cornerstone in this new chapter. We look forward to developing strong and lasting client relationships for years to come with this new expansion,” says president & CEO at Pennoni, Dave DeLizza.
