Atwell Acquires Dempsey Surveying

Natick, MA (December 28, 2022) – Atwell has entered into a definitive agreement to acquire Dempsey Surveying Company, a land surveying firm based in Cleveland, Ohio. This acquisition, the third transaction announced by Atwell this quarter, will expand the company's presence in Ohio and surveying capabilities in the Midwest. The deal is expected to close by Dec. 31, 2022.

Dempsey Surveying Company's services include topographic surveys, construction staking, boundary services, Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) flood elevation certificates, surface model TINs, Global Positioning System (GPS) services, aerial mapping, and drone services.

"We're pleased to combine the knowledge, technical capabilities, and experience of these two successful companies," said William W. Anderson, Senior Vice President of Atwell. "Our shared priorities of providing proactive solutions and excellent client service will strengthen our ability to deliver quality projects that achieve our clients' goals."

Dempsey Surveying Company has a wide range of clients across several markets including industrial, commercial, public utilities, and more. The company maintains more than 50 years of survey records. "We're excited to join the team at Atwell and look forward to being able to expand the services we offer to our existing and future clients," said Christopher Dempsey, Chief Executive Officer of Dempsey Surveying Company. "This acquisition provides new opportunities for both our clients and team members."

Morrissey Goodale, a specialized management consulting and research firm exclusively serving the architecture, engineering, and environmental consulting industries, initiated the transaction and advised Atwell.
