

Fishbeck boosts environmental practice in deal for SW Michigan-based Envirologic

January 10, 2023

Architecture and engineering firm Fishbeck is growing its environmental practice with the acquisition of Southwest Michigan's Envirologic Technologies Inc.

The deal for Envirologic, which was founded in 1989 in the Kalamazoo area and specializes in brownfield redevelopment, environmental investigation and due diligence and ecological services across Michigan and surrounding states, will add 25 employees to Fishbeck.

Terms of the deal were not disclosed. The acquisition took effect Jan. 1.
