Tetra Tech Acquires Amyx, Inc. to Expand Enterprise Technology and Cybersecurity Services

January 5, 2023

Tetra Tech, Inc. (NASDAQ: TTEK), a leading provider of high-end consulting and engineering services, announced today that it has acquired Amyx, Inc., a premier enterprise technology services, cybersecurity, and management consulting firm based in Reston, Virginia.

"The integration of Amyx's high-end technology applications and cybersecurity services with our subject matter expertise in water, environment and sustainable infrastructure continues to expand Tetra Tech's ability to provide innovative solutions for our clients"

"The integration of Amyx's high-end technology applications and cybersecurity services with our subject matter expertise in water, environment and sustainable infrastructure continues to expand Tetra Tech's ability to provide innovative solutions for our clients," said Dan Batrack, Tetra Tech Chairman and CEO. "The addition of Amyx to our Federal Information Technology Division enables us to expand the use of advanced data analytics, cybersecurity, digital transformation, and agile software development solutions for our government and commercial customers."

William Schaefer, Amyx President and CEO, said, "We are pleased to join the Tetra Tech family, adding our expertise to Tetra Tech's leading federal IT experts, while also gaining access to their global platform and numerous contract vehicles. Leveraging Tetra Tech's expertise in areas such as Artificial Intelligence and experience supporting customers with very similar mission needs to our own, not only creates more value for our clients, but also establishes exciting opportunities for our employees to grow professionally."

The terms of the acquisition were not disclosed. Amyx is joining Tetra Tech's Government Services Group.
