Parisi Transportation Consulting Joins Parametrix

Natick, MA (March 2, 2023) – Parisi Transportation Consulting (Parisi), a planning and design services firm with experience in complete streets, safe streets, active transportation, traffic engineering, and transportation planning projects, joined Parametrix, a 100-percent employee-owned engineering, planning, and environmental sciences firm headquartered in Seattle, WA.

Parisi was founded over 20 years ago with the philosophy of providing high quality services tailored to the unique transportation needs of individual cities, towns, and counties. The firm has offices in Berkeley and Marin County, CA.

“The merger of Parametrix and Parisi provides tremendous synergy through services offered and geographies served,” stated Parametrix CEO John Willis. “We’re thrilled to combine the benefits of Parametrix’s portfolio of transportation clients, employee ownership, and our reputation as a best place to work with Parisi’s reputation in California for providing a wide range of transportation planning and design services to enhance the safety and livability of the communities served now and into the future.”

“Our team is excited about Parametrix’s culture, geographic footprint, and multi-disciplinary teams, which gives our clients a deeper range of services,” said Parisi Transportation Consulting founder David Parisi.

Morrissey Goodale, a specialized management consulting and research firm exclusively serving the architecture, engineering, and environmental consulting industries, advised Parisi.
