

Davis & Floyd, Inc. Acquires Andrews Engineering Company, Inc., Expanding Reach In South Carolina

May 09, 2023

Davis & Floyd, Inc., a leading engineering firm in South Carolina, announced today it has acquired Andrews Engineering Company, Inc., a respected Beaufort-based engineering firm. The acquisition is part of Davis & Floyd's strategic plan to expand its capabilities and services in the coastal region of South Carolina.

Andrews Engineering, founded in 1990 by Steve Andrews, has established a reputation for providing high-quality engineering services to public and private sectors in the Lowcountry. The firm specializes in civil engineering, surveying, land planning, and construction management.

According to Stephen Davis, Chairman & CEO at Davis & Floyd, "We are thrilled to welcome Andrews Engineering to the Davis & Floyd family. The team at Andrews has built a strong reputation in the Lowcountry for delivering innovative engineering solutions that meet the unique needs of its clients. This acquisition will allow us to expand our reach in the region and better serve our collective clients."

Under the terms of the acquisition, Andrews Engineering will be integrated into Davis & Floyd's existing Beaufort office with all employees joining the Davis & Floyd team. Andrews will serve as Vice President and Beaufort Office Leader.

"I am proud of what we have built at Andrews Engineering over the past 33 years," said Andrews. "Joining Davis & Floyd will allow us to take our services to the next level and provide our clients with even more resources and expertise. I am excited to see what the future holds for our team."

The acquisition is effective immediately and Davis & Floyd will work closely with Andrews Engineering to ensure a seamless transition for all clients and employees.
