

draftPros, LLC and The W-T Group, LLC Announce Strategic Partnership to Accelerate Innovation in the Infrastructure Engineering Sector

May 9, 2023

draftPros and The WT Group, two leading firms in the infrastructure engineering industry, announced a partnership aimed at combining draftPros' expertise in the telecommunications sector and WT Group's expertise in the Engineering and Architecture sector. This partnership will enhance their service offering to allow the companies to address better, the ever-evolving needs of their customers and the industry as a whole.

For over 25 years, draftPros has provided telecommunications solutions, including turnkey engineering, permitting, and construction services tailored to their client's unique needs. DraftPros has a workforce of over 500 team members and a nationwide presence.

Meanwhile, The WT Group is an established multi-discipline engineering and architecture group, over 160 team members strong, that provides a broad range of engineering services, including civil, structural, electrical, mechanical, accessibility, land surveying, and aquatic engineering, as well as construction project management nationwide and has been delivering service to its customers for over 50 years.

"We are thrilled to be partnering with The WT Group to create new opportunities for growth in infrastructure engineering," said draftPros CEO and WT Group Co- CEO Karel Gomez. "By joining forces, we can combine our strengths and leverage our networks to serve our customers better, expand our offerings, and drive growth for both companies."

The combined entity now forms one of the largest Minority MBE National Certified Engineering, Telecom, and Architecture firms in the nation.

"It is rare for a firm of this size and in this industry to also hold an MBE Certification, further improving the attractiveness for large corporations to engage in business with us," said Mr. Gomez.

Troy Triphahn, The WT Group CEO, added, "This partnership is an exciting opportunity to leverage and strengthen both our organizations to deliver turnkey solutions that add exceptional value to our customers. We look forward to working closely with draftPros to achieve our shared goals."

The partnership between draftPros and WT Group is a testament to the power of collaboration and the benefits that can be achieved when companies combine their strengths and expertise.
