

Westex Consulting Engineers, LLC acquires Nortech Geotechnical/Civil Consultants, Ltd

June 7, 2023

To continue our goal of expanding both our capacity and capability, our team at Westex is excited to announce the acquisition of Nortech Geotechnical/Civil Consultants, Ltd. Since 1992, Nortech has provided engineering services to our community and we are pleased to join together to continue in that tradition, now with greater combined resources.

Our commitment to helping our clients has only grown in the past years, and with that being said, we are excited to expand our capabilities to better work with you. So, what does this mean for our clients? The acquisition will allow us to serve you at maximum capacity, including:

- Expansion of our staff
- Increased turnaround time
- Increased workload capability

Headquartered in Reno, Nevada with capabilities across the state, the Tahoe Basin, and California, WESTEX Consulting Engineers, LLC represents creative clients for a multitude of various industries including: land development, medical facilities, airports, commercial property, residential property, and public infrastructure. Our licensed professionals, certified inspectors, and AASHTO-accredited Laboratory specialize in all aspects of Geotechnical, Civil Engineering and Special Inspection services. Collectively, we are a group of highly experienced and dedicated individuals who enjoy being a part of successful projects from the conception of an idea through the delivery of a final product.

“We would like to extend our best wishes to Nick Vestbie as he enters retirement,” said Blake Carter, President of Westex Consulting Engineers. “Our team is grateful to have this opportunity to continue expanding our capabilities to better serve our clients.”
