

PAPE-DAWSON ENGINEERS ANNOUNCES INVESTMENT IN ORLANDO-BASED POULOS & BENNETT

September 21, 2023

Pape-Dawson Engineers, LLC has formed a strategic partnership with Poulos & Bennett, LLC as part of its strategy to expand its industry-leading civil engineering practice across the United States.

Established in 2009, Poulos & Bennett is a land planning, civil engineering, and development services firm with more than 65 employees in Orlando and Jacksonville, providing services for residential, commercial, healthcare, municipal, and higher education developments. Poulos & Bennett also provides power/energy, water resources, roadway, and utility services. The partnership is the first outside of Texas for Pape-Dawson.

“We are pleased to have Poulos & Bennett partner with Pape-Dawson,” said Pape-Dawson President, Gene Dawson. “In addition to the firm’s commitment to service and technical expertise, Poulos & Bennett’s focus on maintaining a strong company culture was an important factor in our decision to pursue a partnership.”

“Partnering with Pape-Dawson will provide new professional opportunities for our team members and an expanded pool of resources for our clients,” said Jamie Poulos, Partner at Poulos & Bennett. “We’re excited to be part of a growing organization that has built a solid reputation of integrity and places a high value on its people,” stated Lance Bennett, Partner at Poulos & Bennett.
