

PRIME AE Enhances Midwest Presence with Jacobi, Toombs & Lanz Acquisition

September 20, 2023

PRIME AE Group, Inc. (PRIME AE), a NewHold company, is pleased to announce the acquisition of Jacobi, Toombs & Lanz, Inc. “JTL” Headquartered in New Albany, Indiana, JTL is an integrated engineering, survey and construction services firm supporting clients in transportation, water resources, and surveying throughout the Indiana and Kentucky infrastructure market.

With almost 68 years in business, the JTL team brings tremendous depth of knowledge and experience, as well as an established group of municipal, state, and commercial clients in the Indiana and Kentucky areas. JTL is recognized for superior project delivery and client support across all of their business lines. Bringing this organization into the PRIME AE family enhances its Midwestern presence and deepens our combined professional capabilities across our Transportation and Water Resources engineering, surveying and construction services business lines. This partnership also brings extensive resources and expertise to JTL’s existing staff and clients and provides new opportunities for innovation and solutions across expanded business lines in the Midwest.

“We are thrilled to welcome JTL to the PRIME AE family”, says PRIME AE President and Chief Executive Officer Kurt Bergman. “This transaction is the next step in the evolution of a national multi-discipline Architecture & Engineering firm focused on innovative technical solutions, superior quality work, with our clients and employees at the center of all we do. The partnership between these two teams will enable expanded opportunities for all team members and deepens our Firm’s capability in the Midwest.”

“We look forward to joining forces with PRIME AE and expanding our reach and team in our current markets and broadening our offerings with their extensive platform, all while keeping the same local roots we have always had. Since our founding in 1955, we have been committed to our values of Community, Integrity and Trust and are excited to partner with PRIME AE who shares that same commitment”, said Mike Harris, JTL’s President.
