

Acquisitions of J.F. Coffey Associates and American Test and Balance

September 29, 2023

Integra Testing Services, LLC (“Integra”) is pleased to announce the acquisitions of J.F. Coffey Associates, Inc. (“JF Coffey”) and American Test and Balance, Inc. (“ATAB”), both based in the Boston, MA area. JF Coffey and ATAB have provided testing, adjusting and balancing (TAB), HVAC building systems commissioning, and sound and vibration testing services to the greater Boston area since 1991.

Together JF Coffey and ATAB will operate as Integra’s newest division: Integra Testing Services – New England (Integra New England). Integra New England adds one office location to Integra’s seventeen office locations across the United States, Singapore and Guam. Integra’s employee count now totals over 300 with this newest addition. JF Coffey’s owner, Martin Monaghan, will join Integra New England as General Manager and will operate the division with the support of resources across the Integra platform. Brian Donovan, owner of ATAB, will join Integra New England as Account Manager and will support Mr. Monaghan in the new partnership between JF Coffey, ATAB and Integra.

“I am excited by the opportunities our two companies create in partnering and having access to Integra’s national resources and support,” commented Martin Monaghan, owner of JF Coffey.

“The opportunities are endless and Integra New England’s future is bright,” added Brian Donovan, owner of ATAB. “We are now in a position to provide a greater array of high-quality services to our valued customers.”

“We are thrilled to be able to join forces with these two outstanding businesses,” noted Dominic Mazzolini, CEO of Integra. “With their decades of service and experience, both JF Coffey and ATAB have established solid reputations in the greater Boston market and we look forward to building on this foundation by bringing the power of Integra’s network of nationwide resources, service offerings and technical expertise to New England.”
