

Landtec Surveying & Lien Acquires Palm Beach's Leading Surveying Firm

November 15, 2023

Landtec Surveying & Lien, a prominent Florida land surveying company, proudly announces its acquisition of Wallace Surveying Corporation (WSC), Palm Beach County's top commercial surveying firm. This strategic merger is a significant milestone for Landtec, solidifying its position as one of Florida's fastest-growing land surveying companies.

Landtec Surveying was initially founded by Andrew Snyder, who currently serves as an adviser and CFO. With Andrew's guidance, Landtec has grown remarkably over the past five years. This expansion reflects their unwavering commitment to excellence and their ongoing pursuit of new opportunities and acquisitions within the industry.

For more than three decades, Landtec has been a trusted name known for its fast, affordable surveying services and expertise in boundary law. The acquisition of WSC enhances their capabilities and industry leadership.

David Zide, President of Landtec Surveying & Lien, stated, "We are thrilled to announce the acquisition of Wallace Surveying Corporation. Our impressive growth trajectory reflects our dedication to excellence and expansion in the land surveying industry. This partnership strengthens our position as one of Florida's largest and fastest-growing land surveying companies, ensuring top-tier service for our clients."
