

Allen & Company Acquires Nexus 3D Consulting; Expands Capabilities, Staff and Geographic Footprint

November 29, 2023

Allen & Company is pleased to announce its definitive agreement to acquire Nexus 3D Consulting, bringing the two companies together under one entity to create a more robust and innovative force in surveying, mapping, and reality capture services. The acquisition will allow the company to expand resources and strengthen its services and relationships on the East Coast and West Coast. With office locations in Florida, California and Idaho, the company will expand its resources for clients, reach new markets, and advance careers.

“We are pleased to expand our footprint to the West Coast,” said Butch Allen, Founder and President of Allen & Company. “Nexus has a strong footing in many industries that Allen & Company wants to pursue, and Allen & Company will help Nexus grow faster in the markets it already serves. Our commitment to providing exceptional service and value to our clients remains unwavering.”

Allen & Company and Nexus 3D Consulting will bring together their talented staff to offer a wider range of services and meet clients’ evolving needs.

“Nexus benefits from the expertise and support that Allen brings, and Allen benefits from the technology know-how and service experience that Nexus has,” said Matthew Byrd, Founder and President of Nexus 3D Consulting.

Additionally, Matt and Butch agree that both companies share similar values, including a commitment to excellence, innovation, and customer service. “We will work together to preserve and enhance our culture,” the pair noted.
