Insight Group Joins RMA Companies

Natick, MA (March 7, 2024) – Insight Group, a geotechnical, environmental, and construction-materials engineering consulting firm based in Charleston, South Carolina, joined RMA Companies, a provider of professional services in materials testing, inspection, certification, environmental and geotechnical consulting.

This addition marks a significant milestone as RMA expands in the growing Southeastern market in support of its continued strategy to establish a national platform for technology-enabled testing, inspection, and certification capabilities.

Insight Group leverages its technical expertise, advanced laboratory facilities, and decades of experience to provide innovative, high-quality, and practical solutions across geotechnical engineering, construction materials engineering, and environmental sciences. Insight supports the development of critical infrastructure assets throughout the region, including airfield pavements, port facilities, utilities, roads, highways, and bridges. Founder William “Reg” Christopher will continue to lead the region serving as the Southeastern Divisional President for RMA.

“We are pleased to partner with RMA and expand our presence in the Southeast and beyond,” said Reg Christopher, Founder of Insight Group. “Through this partnership we are excited to deliver expanded capabilities to our clients and growth opportunities to our employees.”

Morrissey Goodale, a specialized management consulting and research firm exclusively serving the architecture, engineering, and environmental consulting industries, initiated the transaction and advised Insight Group.
