Curry & Associates Joins Fleis & VandenBrink Engineering, Inc.

Natick, MA (October 9, 2024) – Curry & Associates, Inc. (Curry) is now a part of Fleis & VandenBrink Engineering, Inc. (F&V) expanding its engineering and construction management services across the state of Indiana.

Established in 1993, Fleis & VandenBrink is a multi-disciplined civil engineering firm with offices in Fort Wayne and Indianapolis, as well as seven offices in Michigan. Founded in 1978, Curry employs a total of 16 people at its Danville, IN office, and provides engineering services on projects such as drinking water, wastewater, and stormwater for communities across Indiana.

“We couldn’t have found a better partner in Curry & Associates,” said John DeVol, president of Fleis & VandenBrink. “Our companies complement each other extremely well in terms of the clients and locations we serve, in the services we offer, the relationships we build, and in our corporate philosophies.”

Lori Young, president of Curry, said she was excited about “the partnership and greater resources and support it will bring our clients and team. The alignment of our cultures and client focused service makes F&V the perfect partner. We are thrilled to be joining the F&V team and serving our clients better together.”

Morrissey Goodale, a specialized management consulting and research firm exclusively serving the architecture, engineering, and environmental consulting industries, initiated the transaction and advised Fleis & VandenBrink.
