J-U-B Engineers Acquires Anderson Consulting Engineers, Inc.

Natick, MA (January 6, 2025) – J-U-B Engineers acquired Anderson Consulting Engineers, Inc. (“ACE”), a water resources engineering firm based in Fort Collins, Colorado. With nearly 40 years of specialized expertise, ACE provides consulting services across Colorado, Wyoming, Utah, and Nebraska.

ACE’s team of highly skilled professionals is recognized as industry leaders in hydrologic and hydraulic engineering. Their expertise includes a wide range of services such as floodplain studies, hydraulic modeling, stormwater engineering and master planning, stream restoration, irrigation, and other aspects of water resources engineering.

J-U-B and ACE share a longstanding history of successful collaboration, having partnered on 40 projects over the years. This acquisition enhances J-U-B’s ability to serve both existing and new clients across its service area while unlocking opportunities for growth and innovation in water resources engineering.

Morrissey Goodale, a specialized management consulting and research firm exclusively serving the architecture, engineering, and environmental consulting industries, advised J-U-B Engineers in the transaction.

About Morrissey Goodale:
