

Fishbeck Welcomes Align CEC, Inc. to our Team: A New Chapter of Growth and Collaboration

January 07, 2025

At Fishbeck, we have always believed that growth is about more than numbers – it’s about strengthening relationships, expanding our capabilities, and creating meaningful impact in our communities. Today, we are proud to announce a significant milestone in our journey. As of January 3, 2025, Fishbeck has completed the acquisition of Align CEC, Inc. (Align), a highly respected civil engineering firm with roots in Terre Haute, Indiana, and additional offices in Indianapolis and Greencastle. This partnership is more than a merger of businesses; it’s a blending of shared values, complementary expertise, and a united commitment to delivering exceptional solutions. Together, we are poised to amplify our impact, enhancing the value we bring to clients, communities, and the industries we serve.

A Legacy of Excellence

Align has built a stellar reputation for delivering innovative engineering solutions across diverse sectors, including transportation, aviation, and municipal projects. Their specialized expertise in civil engineering, land surveying, site design, and construction inspection has made them a trusted partner for public and private clients alike. With deep local connections and a passion for improving project and community outcomes, Align exemplifies the values Fishbeck holds dear. Their ability to tackle complex challenges with tailored, high-quality solutions has earned them admiration throughout the industry. “Align’s exceptional reputation, deep roots in Indiana, and proven expertise complement our existing strengths,” shared Jeff Schumaker, President of Fishbeck. “We are excited to welcome their talented team, and together, we look forward to delivering even greater value to our clients and the communities we serve.”

Expanding Horizons, Elevating Service

The integration of Align’s team and capabilities strengthens Fishbeck’s position as an industry leader. By joining forces, we are better equipped to address multifaceted projects with expanded creativity, technical depth, and a shared dedication to innovation. Align’s proficiency with cutting-edge technologies and adherence to industry best practices will help elevate our service offerings. “This acquisition is a natural fit that enhances our ability to meet our clients’ evolving needs,” said Andrew Gill, Vice President/Director of Business Transformation at Fishbeck.

A Shared Vision for the Future

This partnership reflects Fishbeck’s continued investment in talent and growth throughout the Midwest. By bringing together the strengths of two outstanding firms, we set a new standard for engineering excellence and redefine what’s possible in our industry. As we move forward, our mission remains clear: to deliver innovative, integrated solutions that exceed expectations and contribute to thriving communities. The addition of the Align team reinforces our commitment to that mission, positioning us for ongoing success and leadership in the years ahead. Together, Fishbeck and Align are building better projects, stronger relationships, and a brighter future. We are excited about the opportunities this partnership will bring and look forward to continuing our journey of excellence.
