

ICOP to Acquire Atlantic GeoConstruction Holdings

February 24, 2025

I.CO.P. S.p.A. Società Benefit (“ICOP”), a leading underground engineering company listed on Euronext Growth Milan and a key player in Europe’s special foundations and microtunneling sector, recently announced its agreement to acquire Atlantic GeoConstruction Holdings, Inc. (“AGH”) a U.S. leader in geotechnical solutions.

Expected to close in April 2025, this cross-border acquisition marks a pivotal moment in ICOP’s global expansion, enabling ICOP to enter and compete in the U.S. market and significantly accelerating its growth. In line with the company’s IPO strategy, this deal strengthens ICOP’s capabilities as a global leader in foundation engineering, allowing it to expand capabilities, enhance competitiveness and drive sustainable innovation.
