

Levine Leichtman Capital Partners Invests in ALL4 in Partnership with Management

January 23, 2025

Levine Leichtman Capital Partners ("LLCP"), a Los Angeles-based private equity firm, announced today that it has acquired ALL4 (the "Company") from JMH Capital Partners in partnership with management. Financial terms of the transaction were not disclosed.

Founded in 2002, ALL4 is a leading provider of regulatory-driven environmental, health & safety ("EH&S") consulting services. The Company offers a comprehensive suite of services including air quality, EH&S, digital solutions, and sustainability consulting that address clients' mission-critical needs. ALL4 is headquartered in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania and operates from 12 offices worldwide, with a national office footprint across the U.S. and an international presence in Europe and Latin America.

"We are delighted to partner with ALL4, a market leader in EH&S consulting," said Andrew Schwartz, Partner at LLCP. "ALL4 has built an outstanding reputation with its renowned technical expertise, culture and service mindset, which has helped create a diverse base of loyal clients and resulted in a consistent track record of strong growth. We are excited to work with the management team to build on ALL4's impressive growth trajectory and support the Company through its next chapter."

ALL4 will continue to be led by co-founders Bill Straub and Kevin Hickey, alongside the rest of the existing executive team, who will maintain significant equity ownership in the Company in partnership with LLCP.
