

SAM Companies Acquires Doucet Survey

January 21, 2025

SAM Companies (“SAM” or the “Company”), the most trusted and sought-after company in the infrastructure ecosystem and the nation’s leading provider of professional Geospatial and Inspection solutions, today announced that it has acquired Doucet Survey (“Doucet”), a New England-based professional land surveying and geomatics services firm.

For over 30 years, Doucet has been delivering best-in-class geospatial solutions to clients in the utilities, transportation, development, construction, and government sectors. In addition to their expertise in traditional land surveying services, Doucet brings advanced capabilities in high-definition laser scanning and UAV solutions—capabilities that align seamlessly with SAM’s comprehensive suite of services, our cutting-edge technology, and our commitment to delivering industry-leading solutions. Their capabilities complement SAM’s, expand the Company’s presence in the Northeast United States while bringing on a team of professionals accustomed to applying technologically advanced techniques across the geomatics industry.

SAM President and CEO Chris Solomon said, “For over three decades, Doucet has built a stellar reputation for delivering innovative solutions across the utilities, transportation, and government sectors in the Northeast. Their expertise and long-tenured client relationships, coupled with SAM’s industry-leading expertise, will allow us to further expand our collective footprints. Together, we are excited to continue delivering unmatched value and innovation to our clients.”

“This partnership not only allows us to expand our reach but also enhances the innovative solutions we can offer our clients,” said Jeff A. Goldknopf, PS, Principal of Doucet. “By combining our local expertise with SAM’s national resources and advanced technologies, we are confident in our ability to deliver even greater value while staying true to the principles that have guided us for over three decades.”

SAM continues to pursue a bold strategic growth strategy, both organic and through acquisition, with an emphasis on strengthening its capabilities, client solutions, and geographic expansion. Business owners interested in learning more about SAM’s M&A strategy and the benefits of partnering with the Company should visit “Mergers & Acquisitions” on the SAM Companies website.
