

RWBID Construction Management Merges with Cumming Group, Strengthening Project Management Portfolio in Southern California

March 06, 2025

Cumming Group, a leading international project management and cost consultancy, is pleased to announce that RWBID Construction Management (“RWBID”) has officially joined the firm. Established in 2010 and headquartered in Hermosa Beach, California, RWBID is a trusted advisory firm that has provided construction management services in Southern California to 22 public agencies across approximately 500 projects. RWBID is playing a vital role in shaping infrastructure and community development through an extensive and diverse portfolio of project types, including civic justice and public safety, healthcare, recreation, libraries, and education.

RWBID has successfully collaborated on multiple projects with Cumming Group in Southern California, and this partnership will provide the foundation for a seamless integration while aligning with Cumming Group’s long-term vision to expand its presence in both the public sector and the greater Los Angeles region. Under Cumming Group, RWBID will integrate quickly and expand Cumming Group’s local team, bringing the total regional team to 200 professionals.

Derek Hutchison, CEO & President of Cumming Group, said, “The addition of the RWBID team reinforces our commitment to the greater Los Angeles area, a key market where we have operated for nearly 30 years. This merger enhances our capabilities to deliver value to the projects and programs that directly impact the communities where people live, work, and interact. We take great pride in delivering critical infrastructure and facilities to this important market.”

Matthew Feldhaus, RWBID’s President and Founder, commented, “We are excited to join the industry-leading team at Cumming Group. We look forward to working together to leverage its expanded services and deep expertise and deliver even greater value to our clients and team.”

Anthony Sanchez, Executive Vice President of Cumming Group, said, “It has been an honor to work with Matt as a strategic partner and serve together on the CMAA SoCal Board for several years. The combined force of Matt’s team joining our public project management team in SoCal will further our charge forward as we continue to deliver world-class service to our clients.”

AEC Advisors, through its registered broker-dealer affiliate AEC Transaction Services LLC, was the exclusive financial advisor to RWBID Construction Management.
