

Ulteig Acquires Paradigm Environmental, Expanding its Water Resources Expertise

March 04, 2025

Ulteig has acquired Paradigm Environmental, a consulting firm that combines advanced technology with water industry expertise, to provide world-class solutions for water resource management. This mutually beneficial relationship provides structure and resources to continue Paradigm's growth trajectory while allowing them to deliver novel water resources and sustainability programs for our clients and communities. "Joining forces with Paradigm Environmental creates an opportunity for Ulteig to transform our impact in the Water Lifeline Sector," said Ulteig President and CEO Doug Jaeger. Both companies share a passion for innovation, commitment to client success and a strong, employee-centric work culture.
