

SCHRADERGROUP Joins National Architecture Firm Hord Coplan Macht

April 1, 2025

Hord Coplan Macht (HCM), an award-winning integrated architecture, landscape architecture, interior design, and planning firm with offices across Maryland, Colorado, Metro DC, North Carolina, and South Carolina is pleased to announce Pennsylvania-based architectural, interior design and structural engineering design firm SCHRADERGROUP (SG) has joined HCM.

SG's expertise in PK-12 education, higher education, mission critical, and public safety facilities, combined with HCM's full-scale practice and innovative design approach, strengthens its ability to serve a wide range of clients. The addition of SG's practice will drive HCM's growth in these sectors and will add mission critical and public safety to its portfolio of services.

HCM's geographic presence will improve SG's ability to serve its national mission critical and public safety clientele. With offices in Metro Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Lancaster, and State College, SG's practice provides HCM with an overall presence across Pennsylvania.
